Geneva, Switzerland, December 4.—An amendment to the covenant to the League of Nations eliminating Article Ten, the most mooted section of the pact, was introduced in the Assembly of the League today by Charles J. Donerty, Canadian Minister of Justice.

The amendment probably will be referred to the Committee on Amendments.

ARGENTINA ABSENT

Geneva, Switzerland, December 4.—Argentina's delegation to the Assembly of the League of Nations did not appear during the first hour of today's meeting. Honorio Pueyrredon, head of the delegation, refused to deny Argentina was withdrawing from the League.

"I cannot discuss the matter at this time," he said to the Associated Press at his hotel. The Argentine representatives were in conference when Senator Pueyrredon was seen today.

The Argentine Foreign Minister declared he probably would go to the Assembly meeting later, but up until noon he had not appeared.

The fact that Senator Pueyrredon did not attend today's meeting caused suppressed excitement in the Assembly. His refusal to deny reports that Argentina would withdraw from the League after he had characterized them last night as false, was believed to be due to a communication he had received from the Argentine government this morning.

George Nicoll Barnes, Great Britain, was prepared to ask the Council of the League to account for its failure to use its good offices in an endeavor to keep the Russian Bolsheviks and the Poles from fighting last summer.

Columbus, O., December 4.—The auto of E. J. LOOT OBTAINED
ABOUT $15,000

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., December 4.—Checking up today by the bank officials disclosed that the auto bandits, who yesterday robbed the First National Bank at Grove City, obtained loot to the value of $15,000, instead of $8,000. Liberty bonds stolen amounted to $10,000.

Columbus police today had no trace of the bandits. For hours yesterday they sped over country roads in pursuit of the fleeing bandits' car. At one time they were 25 minutes behind the robbers.

When officers reached North Lewisburg the entire business section of the town was closed and a veritable ambush was prepared for the bandits. Former army men were stationed on roofs with repeating rifles ready to give the desperadoes a warm reception.

PHENOMENAL AUTO GROWTH INCREASES TRAFFIC PROBLEM

A STUDY OF CLEVELAND'S TRAFFIC from the Air

With Ohio's automobiles counted by hundreds of thousands instead of by tens of thousands, traffic is the pressing problem of the day in practically every city.

The small town as well as the big city has its difficulties. The handling of this great volume of traffic is being studied from many different angles, because, it is said, only the surface has been scratched, and men in the automobile trade preparing for the annual show at Cleveland, Jan. 22 to 29, declare that the present horde of motor cars in Ohio will grow even faster in the future than in the past. The show will inaugurate a season of buying that will make previous spring rushes seem small, predicts Fred H. Caley, manager of the motor show.

The growth of cities and the spread of population over greater areas will cause a continuous and increasing demand for motor cars as the answer to the transportation requirement.

Marker, Carried AwayPuts Into Port for New Equipment

(By Associated Press)

Boston, December 4.—Nantucket Shoals lightship, one of the most important aids to navigation on the Atlantic coast, was reported missing from her station today.

Vessels which passed close to her lonely position in the open sea forty-three miles southeast of Sankaty Head, Nantucket, reported by radio they could not see her during the night.

Wireless requests for information of the whereabouts of the floating beacon were numerous. Efforts to reach the ship herself by radio failed, but it was explained her wireless apparatus had been out of commission for several days.

The ship, which has been on the station recently, was Relief Vessel No. 90, the regular lightship having been sent to New Bedford for repairs. No. 90, a steel ship, powered with double engines and equipped with electric light, carried a crew of fifteen men.

LIMPS INTO PORT

Boston, December 4.—The Nantucket Shoals Lightship, leading mark for all trans-Atlantic shipping making port at New York, was torn away from its lonely and important station in a storm Thursday night and caused confusion among vessels that skirted the dangerous shoals.

After inquiry from several ships that missed the floating beacon and wireless combing of the seas the mystery of the ship's disappearance was solved when she put in at New Bedford today.

All was well with the crew of fifteen aboard but new moorings and other apparatus were needed before she could take up her ocean outpost duty again.

by Virginia Citizens

Fearless Nationalism Advanced

(By Associated Press)

Newport News, Va., December 4.—Returning to American shores today from his vacation trip, President-elect Harding received a rousing welcome from the Virginia Tidewater cities and responded with a message of renewed national confidence and unity.

Final abandonment of sectionalism and a rebirth of fearless nationalism furnished the theme of several speeches on his program during the day in Newport News and Norfolk. He declared although his trip away from home had furnished many pleasant experiences it had served to make stronger his devotion to independent America.

The steamer Pastores on which Senator and Mrs. Harding made the return voyage from the canal zone came into Hampton Roads soon after daylight and docked here at 10:30 a. m.

SENATOR CAPPER OFFERS BILL TO STOP GAMBLINGSays Present Crop of Corn Sold
Fourteen Times."Farmer Always Goat" Insists
Senator With New Bill

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 4.—Senator Capper, of Kansas, today made public his proposed bill to stop gambling in foodstuffs and cotton.

A tax of ten percent designed to be prohibitive on "future" trading in grain and cotton except by actual owners of a limited class of traders under federal license is the basic feature of the Capper bill to be introduced in the Senate next week by the author.

"The bill will stop gambling in wheat, corn, cotton and other farm products," said Senator Capper. "It will eliminate the wheat pit and the blackboard. It will put out of business thousands of wirehouses and bucketshops."

"The Chicago Board of Trade as now conducted," said Senator Capper, "is the world's greatest gambling institution. More wheat was sold in Chicago in the month of October than was raised in the entire United States this year."

"The year's corn crop was sold fourteen times in Chicago before a bushel of corn had reached the market."

"There is not the slightest doubt the gigantic raid made by the bears on the board of trade was the chief cause of the recent disastrous slump in the price of farm products. Because a lot of market gamblers find it too convenient to set on the daily quotations the farmer, who has been forced to sell his stores at a loss while meat still sells at war prices, is again made the goat. The farmer is always the goat."

U. S. WILL NOT MAKE FURTHER
CONCESSIONSHas Reached Limit in Division
Of German Cables TakenGreat Britain Wants To Get
Hands on Important Cables

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 4.—The American government has about reached the limit of the concessions it is willing to make to the allied and associated powers with regard to disposition of the former German cables, it was made known today by one of the American commissioners to the International Communication Conference now in session here.

Officials would not attempt to indicate what might follow the breaking up of the conference which has appeared imminent as a result of the unwillingness of some of the powers represented to reach what the American representatives consider an equitable distribution of the former German cables.

The United States has insisted the cable communications between the United States and Germany, interrupted as a result of the division of the German cables by the allies, should be restored. Great Britain is understood to have expressed a willingness to restore the cable which formerly ran from Emden to New York, but which had been destroyed only on condition that it remain in British hands.

MRS. MACSWINEY

AT NEW YORKWidow of Late Lord Mayor Of Cork With Sister-in-Law

(By Associated Press)

New York, December 4.—Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, widow of the Lord Mayor of Cork, who died on a hunger strike in London's Brixton Prison, stepped quietly down the gangplank from the big gray liner Celtic this morning, landing here on her long journey to testify before the Committee of One Hundred investigating conditions in Ireland.

The little woman, clad in mourning, was accompanied by Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late Lord Mayor, who made the journey with her.

Outside the entrance to the pier, hundreds of men, women and children, wearing mourning bands and carrying flags of the Irish Republic, were massed to greet the two women, but they appeared from a different exit than was expected and stepped into a waiting taxicab and were well on their way before the crowd knew they had landed.

HARSH WORDS
USED AT PROBE
IN WASHINGTON

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 3.—The congressional joint committee hearing on the agricultural situation developed today into a dispute at times quite heated between Governor Harding of the Federal Reserve Board and members of Congress.

"Mr. Chairman what is the purpose of this hearing?" Governor Harding demanded while being questioned by representative Byrnes, Democrat, of South Carolina.

"Is the Federal Reserve Board on trial? Am I on trial here?" he continued, declaring he had been a target for "all kinds of abuse."

Representative Byrnes said he meant no reflection on Governor Harding. At one point Governor Harding told Representative Byrnes he "ought to read the federal reserve act and try to understand it." Mr. Byrnes replied that he did understand the act as he had helped frame it.

INSISTS MODERN SCIENCE CALLS FOR WHOLE WHEAT

Adelaide, Australia. (By Mail)—Dr. Hargreaves, a distinguished Australian chemist, declared at a conference of master bakers here that the nations which eat white bread were getting close to the border line of neuritis. He advocated brown bread, saying that modern science demanded that wheat should be milled whole. He said that, undoubtedly, campaigns in favor of whole meal bread will be shortly launched in the United States and England, and it behooved Australia to take prompt action. The members of the conference agreed with the doctor's observations but said that Australians, with the exception of cranks and dyspeptics, refused to eat brown bread.

BANK ROBBERS USED MARMON CAR

That the bandits who Friday morning robbed the Grove City Bank are the same men who looted the Kingston Bank recently, is made almost certain by the fact that the bunch used a Marmon automobile with wire wheels, similar to that used on the Kingston job.

The machine had a maroon body and top, according to numerous persons who remembered the machine. The car had driven about Grove City sometime before the hold-up occurred.

FIVE MAIN FACTORS OF GOOD GASOLINE

Vaporization—
Quick Firing—
Maximum Power—
Carbon Freedom—
Most Miles—

The first four mentioned factors combined make possible the fifth, and without them it is not attainable.

All gasoline must vaporize before it is fit to enter the combustion chamber, and thus become quick firing; when it fires quickly and easily there are less "misses" and greater power results; and when it vaporizes perfectly there is a minimum of "raw" gas burned and less carbon deposits, all of which result in a smooth operating motor and greater miles.

Liberty Gasoline

has the advantage of all five points named above and is delivering more miles per gallon daily for convinced users. And say, "Tiptop Gasoline" is a real peppery, high test fuel—at our So. Fayette Street Station.

BRITISH TRADE SHOWS INCREASE

London. (By Mail)—Britain's foreign trade for September showed a slight recovery, following the sharp decline in the preceding month; the adverse balance of trade being reduced to 21,000,000 pounds, as against 24,000,000 pounds in August.

The outstanding feature of the September returns in the decrease in imports of raw materials; the total value being the lowest recorded this year, despite the fact that purchases of foodstuffs were higher by over 5,000,000 lbs. This general drop was clearly shown in iron ore, timber, cotton, wool, rubber, oil seeds and paper-making machinery.

The woman of the hour is the one who says she will be ready in a minute.

Overland 4 Sedan

For Christmas, Put Your Wife's Initials On An OVERLAND SEDAN

For greater even than the pleasure of riding in an Overland is the pride of owning it.

Besides, the Overland Sedan is a woman's car.

It's a man's car, too; but it's a woman's car in the sense that it is simple to operate and easy to control.

In the country, she can drive it over hard, irregular roads with comfort, and turn it in a cowpath with ease.

And in the city it picks its way through the labyrinths of traffic as lightly as a dancer on a polished floor.

For this is the new Overland, made of light alloy steels, and hung like a hammock on the Suspension Triplex Springs.

Combines lightness with comfort and economy with both.

Has a transcontinental record of over 27 miles per gallon.

And a national reputation for stability of materials and workmanship.

Ten Year Old Threatened To Shoot Teacher Because Truant Officer Was Sent After Him.

Because the truant officer was sent after him when he failed to attend school regularly, Fred Stevens, aged ten years carried a loaded .32 calibre revolver to the class room with him Friday afternoon but the weapon was discovered and taken from him after he had threatened to shoot his teacher, Mrs. Moore, of the fifth grade, in Old Central.

His school mates heard his threats and warned Mrs. Moore. The child was searched and the loaded revolver and a number of cartridges found in his clothes.

Superintendent William McClain was called and took the child in hand.

The child has not been attending school regularly and the truant officer was sent to investigate. He found that the mother works during the day and that the boy was remaining in the home.

EGGS BEST PAYING BRANCH OF FARMING

High prices of eggs and cheap feed costs have combined to make the poultry business at the present the most profitable branch of Ohio farming, according to prominent Ohio poultry men.

The tendency as the result of this, it is believed, will be for farmers to increase the size of their flocks in 1921. This would result in an over-production and would cause falling prices in poultry and eggs just as overproduction has resulted in falling prices of many farm commodities.

It is pointed out that when a bushel of corn sells for less than a dozen eggs there is something wrong with the price of corn. The present relationship, say students of the situation, is caused by an over-production of corn with a sufficient production of eggs—State Agricultural Bulletin.

FIND GOOD USE FOR BARBED WIRE

(By Associated Press)
Riga, Latvia, (By Mail)—A use has at last been found for the vast quantities of barbed wire left on the battlefields of Eastern Europe. Riga inventors have devised machinery for stamping nails out of the wire and hope by this method to relieve the shortage of nails in the Balkan states. Riga has been the center of so much fighting throughout the war that most of the lake streams and roads about the city are thoroughly lined with barbed wire entanglements and great numbers of full spools of wire are lying about. The expense of collecting wire for making nails is thus made light. Many of the piers at this port are stacked high with wire suitable for nail making.

Approximately 120,000 dairy calves are required every year to maintain the present size of the dairy herds of Ohio. In addition to this number, from 13,000 to 14,000 bull calves of the dairy breeds are needed every year.

Since the dairyman's prime motive is to raise calves that will improve his herd, calves of inferior breeding, even though purebred should not be raised with the intention of using them for breeding purposes, according to dairy specialists.

The Rainbow Vanishes

On his visit to the Panama Canal Zone President-elect Harding was told by the ordnance experts that we must have sixteen-inch guns mounted at each end of the canal, pointing out to sea as a protection against attack. Those experts would replace the present fourteen-inch guns with sixteen-inch guns.

But Admiral Knapp does not agree. He says we must have new guns but that they must be eighteen-inch guns pointing from each end of the canal out to all the rest of the world. Admiral Knapp's advice is commended by the press generally because, it is known now that both Japan and England have eighteen inch guns and we must equal those nations.

We must also, according to the experts, increase the size and efficiency of the navy to protect our shipping, our canal and our homes. The people will not object, they tell us, to the tremendous cost when they are informed of its necessity.

All of which is probably correct, according to present conditions and present ideals.

We have no quarrel with the military men who see, as experts the needs and requirements of preparations for war or defense.

The disheartening feature is that with the world war ended only two short years ago, we have done nothing much worth while toward redeeming our promises to make wars impossible. The bright rainbow of promise with which we encircled the future of humanity has been allowed to fade out of our vision.

We are, unless there is a change in present thought and action, headed pell-mell for other wars and more terrible wars. Staggered under the crushing weight of war's debts and war's sorrows we are to be "informed" by selfish propaganda of the danger from Japan and Great Britain and the need to protect ourselves against aggressions.

Perhaps all told us of dangers are true. If so it is a sad—sickeningly sad. If it is not true, if we are being carried into preparations for war, even if not over the precipice into another conflict, it is sadder still that men should be so weak in the hands of the selfish.

If our glorious ideals of war time could be born again throughout the world, perhaps we could stop in the mad race of preparation for war and, relieved of the awful cost of it all—the building and maintaining of deadly instruments of war.

We seem to be back tacking the same old paths with lessons of the war forgotten.

Why Not Talk Straight

The talk of officials and politicians of plans for furnishing financial assistance to the farmers increases rather than diminishes each day. It is difficult to escape from the conclusion that there is an effort being made by some of the officials to camouflage the real purpose underlying the action which has contributed markedly to the farmers' present plight. It seems almost certain too that many leading politicians have seized upon the condition of the farmers to exploit themselves and prepare an alibi for defense against changes in the future, by engaging in spectacular conferences and making emphatic declarations of proposals which they know can't be carried out and which they have no serious intention of trying to carry out.

The whole performance is ridiculous. The farmers must readjust their affairs just the same as other business men and there should be no hesitancy in asserting that fact. There has been speculation among "farmers" the same as among other business men. But officials, simply because the farmers are not organized, should not make all the farmers, that great number who have conducted their affairs conservatively, take the downward plunge all at once, with the speculators among them, while other business men are eased down from the dizzy heights of war time prices and speculation.

The farmers must be aided financially, not by special legislative enactments, unconstitutionally treating them as dependents or as a privileged class, but by the proper administration of existing laws enacted for the protection of all men and all businesses alike.

HARDING FACES SOME CONFUSION IN COUNCILS OF HIS ADVISERS

All Sorts of Advice Will Be Offered To Him at Marion

Domestic and Foreign Problems Will Be Given Attention

Seems Certain Though That Majority Will Rule Meetings

Will be No Dispute With Senate As to Course to be Followed

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

Washington, December 4.—Senator Harding arrives in American tomorrow. By an interesting coincidence, which has, however, no more than a whimsical significance, he arrives exactly two years after the day when President Wilson set out on his unprecedented trip.

Many of the questions which President Wilson went to Paris to settle are today almost as unsettled as they were then, and those questions which have been the burden of the last two years of domestic and international politics will again be the principal questions that Mr. Harding will take up with the advisers he has summoned to confer with him next week. During these past two years the forces of nature and the laws of economics have made some little progress toward healing, but the statesmen and the politicians have been less successful.

The public curiosity is chiefly in on whom Senator Harding has chosen to come to see him and talk with him, and is focussed on finding out what the President-elect says to his callers. But no less importance attaches to what the callers say to Mr. Harding. And this latter is, for the present, much easier to find out or surmise with reasonable accuracy. Within the past two or three weeks I have talked with most of the men whom Harding has invited to counsel with him and it is comparatively easy to predict what counsel they will give.

A Confusion of Counsel

This counsel will be varied in subject and on many points contradictory. The more eager—one might say the more excitable—of his visitors will urge Mr. Harding to put his mind instantly and exclusively on what they refer to as business conditions.

Several of the Republicans senators and other leaders believe that the suffering of business men from recent events in the financial and economic field is not only a matter of immediate concern, but tends to run on into an economic condition which may effect large numbers and all classes of the community, and may reverse the political conditions that gave Harding and the Republican party so large a majority last month. These leaders will plead with Harding that the most immediate duty is to take such measures as are possible for quick relief, and, in addition, to make announcement of policy and of appointments of a character to create confidence for the future.

Specifically, some of these leaders will advise Mr. Harding to announce the names of his secretary of state and his secretary of the treasury as early as possible without waiting to name the rest of his cabinet, so that the public generally, and business men more specially, may get from the announcements some assurance as to foreign policy and financial policy upon which they can base their future actions.

Further than this, these leaders will suggest to Senator Harding that he should call together immediately the members of the finance committee of the new senate, and have them go to work at once upon such subjects as the tariff, the refunding of the public debt, taxation and the extending of treasury or banking relief to farmers and other classes who are now suffering from the fall in prices.

The Question of Foreign Policy Without going into too many details, the advocates of immediate announcements of policy and of appointments in the field of government finance and taxation have in mind acts which can be accepted by the public as definitely outlining the policies that are to last for a long time to come.

This brings us directly to the question of foreign policy. On this subject Senator Harding's advisers fall roughly into two groups. One group says that the recent election was an overwhelming verdict of public opinion antagonistic to any League of Nations whatever. The senators and leaders who take this view are not the largest in number, but are decidedly the more aggressive in spirit.

Opposed to them is a group who will tell Senator Harding, with all the emphasis they can command, that nothing that he can do and nothing the Republican party can do and nothing the country can do can stabilize business permanently until our relations with the rest of the world are first made stable. Specifically these leaders claim that in the economic condition of the world as it stands today there is one indeterminate factor which so long as it remains indeterminate will prevent everything else from becoming stabilized. That factor is the amount of the indemnity which Germany is required to pay.

Germany's Indemnity

Senator Harding will be told that the amount of the German indemnity must be made a fixed sum, so that Germany will know how much she has to pay and can order her economic future accordingly, and so that the Allies will know how much they are to receive and can order their fiscal futures accordingly. These leaders say that the size of the sum which Germany is to be made to pay is not so important as the fact that it should be a fixed sum and not an indeterminate sum. Until this indeterminate factor is turned into a fixed and known quantity, these leaders say, there can be no stability in foreign exchange, no stability in foreign markets and no stability in domestic business.

When it comes to the question of how much power America now has towards fixing this sum, Senator Harding and his advisers are face to face with the question of the League of Nations.

So long as we are one of the League we can have no power and but little influence on this point. The necessity of doing something definite about the League of Nations will be put forward as the first step toward stability in domestic business.

The passage of the Knox resolution declaring a state of peace with Germany will not help us toward stabilizing the debt of Germany to the Allies, but will carry us further from it. Probably the bulk of this advice that Harding receives will be in favor of the immediate passage of the Knox resolution; but there will be as energetic as it is thoughtful.

No Dispute With the Senate

In these discussions between Senator Harding and his advisers about what we all conveniently refer to as "the League of Nations" but what is in fact the larger question of foreign relations as a whole, certain fundamental conditions will quickly come out and can be taken for granted from the start.

The first is this: There is not going to be any dispute between the new President and the new senate, about treaties or about other aspects of foreign affairs. The fact that there was continuously a dispute was the most conspicuous feature for the League of Nations debate for the James Wilson, formerly of this city, but later of Chicago and New York, is again taking up the Columbus-Cincinnati "Air Line" traction railroad project. Mr. Wilson seems very optimistic of the outcome of his plan and is only asking for a right of way. The proposed line of the traction will be parallel with the present B. & O. steam road tracks.

A party of engineers making their headquarters in this city have been making notes on the line and it begins to look like real business on a line which would undoubtedly be a big money maker from the beginning.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins and Mrs. J. Madison Willis entertained two hundred women, Friday afternoon at a reception which left its imprint as an exceptionally charming and beautiful affair in a season without precedent in its elaborate entertaining.

The entire ensemble of the handsome home, which in its spaciousness and arrangement lends itself happily to hospitality, with its wealth of artistic decoration and throng of guests enjoying the gracious cordiality extended by the hostesses, evolved a picture to be cherished in memory.

Pink roses, narcissi and sweet peas lent beauty and perfume to the reception room; stately pink Chadwick chrysanthemums decorated the wide center hall and in the music room a great cluster of the new "Mistletoe" chrysanthemums, a marvelous creamy tinted flower, was most effective.

In the dining room where mahogany of graceful lines greeted the guests, the yellow and brown tints of the decoration blended admirably into the prevailing shades of the room. The sole decoration resting upon the shining surface of the table was a wonderful basket of chrysanthemums in yellows and browns, the Chadwick, pompon and button varieties, and mingled with them sprays of Status, imported from Holland. A satin bow of gold tied the handle.

Here delicious salads, ices and coffee brought the guests into closer intimacy, which was continued in the Palm room, where Misses Gretchen Willis and Dorothy Fullerton presided over a bowl of golden punch.

The Palm room, an exotic bower, proved an enchanted place, where guests lingered as long as possible, enjoying with its unusual beauty, comfortable wicker lounging chairs. This recent addition to the home is a miniature Florida enclosed in glass, magnificent palms shadowing smaller palms and rare blooming plants, birds twittering and at one end a beautiful fountain at play with gold fish swimming in its basin—a suggestion of the Southland to make coming winter days forgotten. Glimpsed through the glass doors a hint of Italy in the pergola which led to another fountain merrily throwing up its spray.

Adding much to the pleasure of the afternoon Mrs. Wert Shoop sang very beautifully, Mrs. Hugh H. Hudson a finished accompanist.

There were an unusual number of smart afternoon toilettes in evidence. Mrs. Hopkins extended her alway gracious hospitality looking very handsome in a modish gown of midnight blue kitten's ear satin and georgette, with touches of hand embroidery.

Mrs. Willis was beautifully gowned and charming in embroidered black georgette, beaded in jet. Both hostesses wore lovely corsage bouquets of pink rose buds and sweet peas, sent by one of the guests.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Mesdames Eva J. Penn, Scott Hopkins, Wert Shoop, Daniel H. Van Winkle, Ralph Penn, Misses Willis and Fullerton.

The Buck florists had the decorating in charge.

Mrs. Emily Warrick catered.

Among guests from out of town were Mrs. Sidney Knight, Columbus; Miss Moore, Denver, Colo.; Mesdames William F. Jefferson, William Haines, Charles Larrimer, Maude Howland, Quincey Kinkaid, Orlan Hays, of Bloomingburg.

The Comrade Class of Young men and women of the Sugar Grove Sunday School served one hundred people at their supper at the church, Friday evening.

Miss Edith Moore teacher of the class was in charge, and a nice sum was netted for the fund set aside for the Christmas treat.

"On the occasion of her 2nd birthday anniversary little Maro Martin of North South street, entertained to dinner Wednesday, her grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stoltz, and aunt, Miss Viola Stoltz."—Wilmington News.

The little honor guest is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Martin, who formerly resided in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Lucas entertained thirty young people, Friday evening at their beautiful country home, "Parkhurst" on the Chillicothe pike, honoring the birthday of the son William, who was taken completely by surprise.

Dancing and music rounded out a delightful evening, and delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas were ably assisted in the hospitalities by Mrs. Ella Stewart and son Mr. Harry Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Harper entertained at six o'clock dinner Friday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Harris B. Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. David S. Craig, Mrs. Frank L. Stutson and Mr. Howard S. Harper.

A beautiful basket of pale pink roses and chrysanthemums formed the table center piece.

The Ladies Aid of Staunton met at the home of Mrs. Tom Wright, Friday afternoon, the January meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Rose.

Twenty-three members were present.

The business session was held after which the following program was given. Reading, Miss Dorothy Hoskins, piano solo, Miss Louise Brannon, vocal duet, Mrs. Rose and Mrs. McCoy.

Dainty refreshments were served.

In the M. E. Church at Bloomingburg the W. F. M. S. and the Queen Esther Class of the M. E. Church held a joint session for the purpose of organizing the Queen Esther Class into a Y. W. F. M. S. on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Morris had charge of the program while the President, Mrs. Richard Smith, had charge of the devotional period.

A duet, "You Can If You Will" was given by Mrs. Gertrude Holland and Mrs. Fern Shelley. Mrs. Minnick contributed a reading to the pleasure of the afternoon. Little Ruth Morrison sang a solo, "King Jesus Has Come."

A very interesting talk was given by Mrs. Smith in bringing the program to a close.

A spread of all the delicacies of the season was served.

Mr. J. W. Townsley returned Thursday from Chicago, where he attended the International Fat Stock Show.

Messrs Howard S. Harper and Herbert Rothrock motored to Oxford Saturday afternoon, to attend a fraternity dance at the Delta Upsilon House and spend Sunday with Mr. Rothrock's brother, Arthur.

Mrs. Charles F. Ballard went to Columbus Saturday, to spend the day with her daughter Mrs. J. W. Holman, who was enroute from Springfield to her home in Youngstown.

SABINA DELEGATION HEARS EVANGELIST

Every seat at the Church of Christ was filled, several stood throughout the service, and a large number were turned away Friday evening at the revival services. A delegation was present from the church at Sabina, bringing with them an orchestra and rendering a number of beautiful selections.

Evangelist Thompson preached a sermon on the theme "A Time to Dance." He declared the dance is the enemy of the church, stating he had never known a dance enthusiast to be a successful Sunday School teacher or a leader in bringing others to God.

Before the sermon Mr. Eddins sang most acceptably "The Holy City" as a solo.

There will be a special service Saturday evening by the children. Half a hundred who have been specially trained by Mr. Eddins will sing. The subject Saturday evening is "No Room For Jesus."

ROADS IN GOOD SHAPE FOR WINTER

Taken as a whole there are a great many more miles of good highway in Fayette county at the present time than in any recent year at the beginning of winter, and the work of applying material is continuing almost every day, with the result that additional roads are being placed in condition to pass through the winter in good or fair condition.

Most of the main roads are repaired so that automobile traffic should be possible every week during the winter.

In some instances much good material has been worked to the side of the road, with the result that the main surface has become rutted, or full of chuck holes, when a little scraping or dragging would work wonders. Part of the Good Hope pike is a notable example of this situation.

HITCHCOCK WILL GIVE ADDRESS

Upon invitation from Wilmington business men, M. E. Hitchcock, original organizer of the Fayette Credit Bureau will go to Wilmington Wednesday night, December 8, to address the business and professional men of that place on the credit bureau workings.

The affair will be featured by a banquet and 100 covers will be laid. A new credit bureau is being organized in Wilmington, modeled after the one in this city.

THIEVES STILL AFTER CHICKENS

SOLDIERS SEEK ESCAPED MEN IN THIS CITY

Three Prisoners, In Bedtime Raiment, Believed To Have Been Here.

Officer and Men Are Directed To Dayton in Their Search.

Seeking three prisoners that escaped from the hospital guard house at Camp Sherman Thursday night, clad only in their bed attire, Lieutenant Marsh of the provost guard department, accompanied by two heavily armed privates, was in this city Saturday morning.

From information obtained by Chief of Police D. L. Moore from residents of Millwood who claimed to have seen three suspicious characters along the B. & O. tracks Friday evening the soldiers were directed to Dayton.

The men being sought are Clyde Anthony, Clayton Ed Jenkins and Everett Honne. They were being held in the hospital guard house and escaped Thursday evening between the hours of seven and nine. All reports to the Camp Sherman officials were that the men were headed for this city. Authorities here, however, say they were not notified to be on the lookout.

A telephone call from a Millwood resident, says Chief Moore, reported that three men had stopped at his home and asked for a drink of water. He afterwards saw them along the B. & O. railroad tracks and believes that they boarded a freight for Dayton.

The authorities have not learned where the men supplied themselves with clothes, although it was reported that a night watchman near Chillicothe had been robbed of his attire.

A report was current in this city Saturday that the three escaped men had held up a man somewhere near here along the B. & O. tracks and stripped him of his clothing. This report, however, could not be verified.

The memoir was written by a close neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. McClure and recalled to those who had been in touch with the home-life Mrs. McClure's lovable character and sterling dependability; a woman whose love and friendship was the firm foundation upon which was erected the enduring structure, now happy memories to those who are left behind, of a happy home and lasting ties of affection.

Royal Chapter Eastern Star concluded the services with the impressive ritual of the order, in charge of Mrs. Reba Bay Worthy Matron; Mr. George Cheney, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Will N. Hay, Chaplain, with the other points of the star.

The interment at the Bloomingburg cemetery was accompanied by the committal service of the Presbyterian Church.

Acting pallbearers were Dr. Howard Stitt, Messrs. J. M. McClure, Roy T. McClure, J. M. Mintern, F. L. Conrad, J. Y. Stitt.

Relatives, here for the funeral included her sister, Mrs. Beatrice McGuire, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Margaret Beckman, of Peebles, a sister of the late R. D. McClure; Mrs. Ida McClure daughter, Miss Mary, Mr. Mark Crawford of Portsmouth; Mrs. Samuel Williamson of Madisonville; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williamson of Evanston Cincinnati.

DEATHS

SLAVENS
The death of Mr. John C. Slavens occurred Saturday morning at 7:00 o'clock, at the home on South Hinde street, following an illness of two weeks. Mr. Slavens was 59 years of age.

Besides a wife and two sons, Albert, at home, Egbert at Cleveland, two grandchildren of the late George Slavens, who was killed more than a year ago, when serving as detective on the B. & O., survive.

Mr. Slavens was employed by the state highway department.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home on Hinde street. Burial will be made in the Washington cemetery.

The Soundness of Templar

Proved in Sweeping Decision

Vital to American Automobile Industry

If American Business is to go ahead

If the integrity of our business institutions is to mean anything

If years of effort and scrupulous attention are to count—

THEN AMERICAN BUSINESS AND AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS MUST BE PROTECTED FROM THE UNSCRUPULOUS ATTACKS OF IRRESPONSIBLE PEOPLE.

The application for Receivership against the Templar Motor Company and the findings of the Court in this matter proving the Company to be absolutely sound and solvent, have a deeper significance than a single victory by a single organization.

IT IS RATHER A VICTORY FOR AMERICAN BUSINESS AND AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS.

Full Text of Court Findings

STATE OF OHIO,
COUNTY OF CUYAHOGA, ss.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

J. W. Wilson, Plaintiff, vs.
The Templar Motors Corporation, Defendant.
LEVINE, J.

No. 184498.

Nov. 30, 1920.

The action alleges, in substance, fraud, deceit and mismanagement of the affairs of The Templar Motors Corporation, and, upon these grounds mentioned, the plaintiff asks that a receiver be appointed to take over the business of the defendant corporation, its control and management. The answer of the defendant corporation is a general denial, by force of which every material allegation contained in the plaintiff's petition is denied. This is a recent case, filed on Nov. 24th, this year. The Court's attention was directed to the case by motion filed in behalf of defendants, asking that this case be advanced for immediate hearing. This motion was heard, yesterday. An attorney appeared in behalf of J. W. Wilson, plaintiff, to oppose this motion to advance. The Court, after some inquiry, directed that this matter be heard upon its merits, immediately, and set the same down for trial, for this morning. The ground for the Court's action was, that it should not be possible for any person to make such serious allegations, contained in the plaintiff's petition, and let the same rest, without action, until the matter is heard upon its merits. If it be true that in a given case, there is fraud, deceit and mismanagement, and that the same is, in good faith, made part of the petition filed in Court, then it is the duty of counsel to accompany the petition by an application for the appointment of a Receiver at once. It is a matter of general knowledge by attorneys and others, that if cases filed in this Court take their natural course, in numerical order, it would be at least one year before the matter could be heard upon its merits. It is entirely within the power of unscrupulous men, for purposes of their own, to make allegations of fraud, deceit and mismanagement, and let the same rest for a period of one year or more, in the meanwhile scatter the information and news broadcast that such a petition has been filed, and bring the most solvent business organization to actual ruination, or on the verge of it. Counsel for the plaintiff in this case was given the opportunity to present such an application in the Court, asking for the appointment of a Receiver, at once. He failed to avail himself of that. The Court thereupon advanced the case for immediate trial, for this morning. Neither the plaintiff nor his counsel are here, but, instead, we have a telegram from the counsel, stating "Unable to appear, as I am unprepared for trial. Please see that the same is dismissed without prejudice." It was not necessary for counsel to proceed to trial. He could file his application for the immediate appointment of a Receiver. The Court would then be satisfied, because both sides would have an opportunity to get into the facts, and let the truth be known. This action, forcing an immediate trial upon the merits, is brought about by the failure of the plaintiff to avail himself of the customary application for the appointment of a Receiver, at once. To say the least, from my inquiry, I am led to believe that somebody is guilty of sharp practice in this case. I do not wish to hastily accuse any individual. Lawyers are often misled by the information received from clients. It would be, therefore, with some hesitation that I would accuse the attorneys for the plaintiff of any impropriety or misconduct. Ohio has sought, and brought about, the enactment of legislation in similar matters. When it was found that scheming and designing men were causing what is popularly known as a run on banks, the legislature took action, and made the same a crime under the laws of Ohio. I told that to file a petition, alleging the grossest kind of accusations against a perfectly solvent firm, for the purpose of creating suspicion in the minds of the public concerning its affairs, and without actual ground for the same, is morally just as much of a crime as causing a run on a bank. There is no law on our criminal code to cover this case, but I would say that the Court would firmly discipline any attorney who would lend himself to any such design or scheme. If the Bar Association, through its proper agencies, will see fit to look into this matter, and it is brought to my attention, that any attorney at this bar had, without proper cause, but merely to carry out the design of a scheming client, prepared a petition containing these allegations of fraud, deceit and mismanagement, well knowing that the same is not true, I would then, promptly and without hesitation, say that the severest sort of discipline shall be applied to such attorney.

I have said all I care to, in this case, and the case stands dismissed.

(Signed) MANUEL LEVINE,
Judge of Common Pleas Court.

The Templar Motor Company, Cleveland, Ohio

CAMPING OUT IS ENCOURAGED

(By Associated Press)

Buenos Aires, (By Mail)—"Camping out," North American style, in localities within commuting distance of Buenos Aires and the spending of vacations in the open air, like the "Yan-yu," is being encouraged by Mayor Cantillo of Buenos Aires.

The Mayor has acted on suggestion sent to him by the Argentine Ambassador at Washington, Tomas Lebreton, who was much impressed by the enjoyment and health obtained by the inhabitants of tent and bungalow colonies which he observed during recent travels throughout the United States.

especially in California and Yellowstone park.

The suggestions are contained in a long letter from Ambassador Lebreton, published in full by the newspapers, in which he describes the benefits of spending the summer season in the country or seaside air. He dwells at length on a bungalow colony developed outside the city of Los Angles, which he thought could be imitated by Buenos Aires.

As a beginning Mayor Cantillo has induced the heads of various institutions including the "Universidad Popular," a free school for workmen, to undertake the organization of campaign colonies and the selecting of sites.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Kudgy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. E. M. Edwards, for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit, 15c and 50c.

SCHOOL AND CLUB
WILL TAKE PART IN SEAL SELLING

Municipalities of County to Do Share In Christmas
 Seal Sale.

Effort Will Be Made To Reach Persons All Over
 County.

With an intensive sale campaign the Christmas Seal Sale in Fayette county will be managed by the four women's clubs in this city, by the schools of both the city and county, and by committees in the municipalities.

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, are the days on which the women's clubs will work. The Brown ing Club, the Cecilians, the Mothers Club, and the D. A. R. will take part. On Saturday there will be a general sale all over the city by the high school girls.

Stations for the club workers have been assigned and committees have been named for each post. Committees have also been named to look after the seal sale in other places over the county.

As usual the schools will play their part in making the seal sale a success. Seals are being placed in the hands of each teacher. This will be done in this city and all over the county.

Committees composed of women and school children to look after this phase of the work have been selected in Jeffersonville, Bloomingsburg, Good Hope, and Millersburg.

This same plan of selling the Christmas Seals worked admirably last year and it is believed will again prove satisfactory. More than $750 was raised.

It is the plan this year to reach every person in the county as far as possible. The quota is ten seals to each person. The seals sell at one cent each.

The Red Cross asks that people use them profusely in making up their Christmas mail.

NAME HITCHCOCK
LEADER '21 TEAM

Hiram Hitchcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hitchcock, is the new captain of the Washington High School football team to lead the eleven in 1921. He was chosen by the letter men of the squad Friday afternoon.

Hitchcock, who played an end during the past two seasons, was not able to take part in the last two games of the schedule because of injuries but this did not prevent him being the choice of his team-mates.

He is rated one of the best flank men in the South-Central Association and his work next year will be watched with interest.

WOOL SHIPMENTS
ARE FINANCED

(By Associated Press)

Paris, (By Mail)—About 800,000 pounds have been made available by the British government for the shipment of 20,000 bales of wool from Australia to Austria to aid the country in reorganizing its industries. The transaction is being handled by the International Committee for Relief Credits.

The committee announced also that the Danish government has appropriated 50,000 crowns to equip an expedition to fight a cattle plague now prevalent in Poland.

POOR LEONORA IS
"SO BEWILDERED BY OLD TARIFF LAWS"

Leonora Hughes.

Leonora Hughes, dancing partner of M. Maurice of Paris, recently arrived in this country for a visit, but it was almost spoiled at the outset just because of "her dreadful ignorance of the queer quirks of the law." It happened like this. Miss Hughes wanted to bring in $100,000 worth of jewels and clothes "just to show her mamma," and they said she was smuggling. Fancy that! Miss Hughes told them she was a citizen of the U. S. but did not say that her home was in London and that she would return soon, and that's how those "horrid customs officials made the terrible mistake."
